CHAPTER. I GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.1 Purpose

The port fees, together with the port's other income (remuneration), will bring the funds that Mo i Rana Port KF (hereafter called MIRH-KF) needs for administration, operation, maintenance and necessary development of facilities, installations etc. The basis for the fees shall be MIRH-KF's costs and expenses.

Remunerations, rents and fees are based on private law rules. The customer is obliged to pay the price agreed at any time or at the agreed price. All prices are in Norwegian kroner and exclusive VAT and taxes.

1.2 Permission

Established by the Ministry of Fisheries and Coastal Affairs on 20 December 2010 pursuant to Act no. Harbors and waters. The port will cover its costs primarily by charging for the services the port offers ref. § 25 of the Act. In § 42, subsection 4, the following provision is included: "The person who offers port and transport services determines price and other business conditions".

The ship arrival fee is set according to Regulations 2010-12-20, no. 1762 which deals with the municipalities' calculation and collection of call charges based on the Port and Waters Act §8, § 25 and § 52. The port regulations 2020 have been adopted by the Port Authority in case xx / 19 and the municipal council in case xx/19, 28.11.2019

1.3 Entry into force, repeal

The port tax regulations came into force from 1 January 2019 until further notice.

1.4 Payment Obligation

The shipowner and the agent are jointly liable for the ship arrival fee. If the customer does not pay at the agreed time, interest is required in accordance with the Act of December 17, 1976 No. 100 (the Delay Interest Act).

1.5 Collection of fee and taxes

For the collection of fees, taxes and mortgages, reference is made to sections 55 and 56 of the Port and Waters Act and the Act of 24 June 1994 No. 39 on maritime transport (Sjøloven).

CHAPTER II FEES AND REMUNERATION

II.1. SHIP ARRIVAL FEE (cf. Regulation No. 1762 of 20.12.2010)

II.1.1 Basis for calculation of ship arrival charges

The call fee is calculated according to the vessel's gross tonnage. For vessels with a length of 24 m or more, the gross tonnage shall be determined in accordance with the measurement convention of 1969.

II.1.2 Regulations for ship arrival charges

With the exceptions mentioned below, all vessels calling at the port must pay the following port fees:

OF the first	300	GT	kr.	0,72	per tonn
OF the next	300	GT	kr.	0,75	per tonn
OF the next	600	GT	kr.	0,95	per tonn
OF the next	800	GT	kr.	1,10	per tonn
OF the next	1000	GT	kr.	1,10	per tonn
OF the next	2000	GT	kr.	1,10	per tonn
OF the next	5000	GT	kr.	1,32	per tonn
OF the next	10000	GT	kr.	1,32	per tonn
OF the next	20000	GT	kr.	1,10	per tonn

Minimum charge kr. 100,00

II.1.3 Vessels that are in port and used for residence, storage of goods or similar shall pay NOK 2,50 per vessel. GT per part or part thereof.

II.1.4 Exemption from call charges is:

II.1.4.1. Vessels passing the tax area without arriving at the port.

II.1.4.2. Vessels calling at the port due to injury or emergency when the stay does not last more than 2 days and the vessel does not load or unload - or takes on board ship's necessities or passengers.

II.1.4.3. Salvage and icebreakers during salvage and icebreaking.

II.1.4.4. Vessels under 15 m in length.

II.1.4.6. The Norwegian Coastal Administration's vessels carrying out work within the port district.

II.2. Quay Remuneration

II.2.1 Vessels that dock at MIRH-KF's quays, pay quay fees according to the rates below. The fee is paid once a year. 24 hours or part of a day.

However, payment for one day is always paid.

GT- interval		NOK pr GT	Minimum price
All vessels		0,60	NOK 500,-

II.2.2 The time spent at the quay is counted from the time of mooring and until it loosens. Part of a day of 6 hours or less is counted for 1/2 day. However, quay remuneration are always paid for at least one day.

For vessels that, on the order of the port supervision, have to be tugged from the quay to make room for another vessel and then back to the quay again, the quay time is considered as if the vessel has always been at the quay. If the absence from the quay is over 3 hours, deductions must be made in the calculated quay time with the time the vessel has been away from the quay.

If the vessel changes from one place at municipal quays to another without meanwhile having been outside the boundary area, the bedtime will be calculated as if the vessel had been at the quay without interruption.

II.2.3 A vessel located outside of another vessel moored at the Port Authority's quays and connected to land on the latter vessel shall pay full quay at the applicable rates.

II.2.3.1 Recreational boats located at the Port Authority's floating pier pays quay damages according to the following rates which are exempt from VAT.
